Welcome to Norfolk!

It has been a remarkable year full of exciting changes in our beautiful, waterfront city! There is new hotel construction that's nearly complete, newly renovated hotels; and new restaurants, breweries, entertainment destination and a new retail shopping center are on the way!

Along the Elizabeth River, you will find the gorgeous Decker Half Moone Center as well as Town Point Park, the maritime science museum, Nauticus, and the Battleship Wisconsin. Docked near Town Point Park, the tall ship American Rover, Victory Rover and Spirit of Norfolk are ready to take you on a leisurely tour of our harbor.

Our art and theatre scene is one of the best in the Commonwealth. The new NEON arts district (New Energy of Norfolk) continues to flourish and is home to working artist studios, galleries, a comedy club, restaurants and more! The one-of-a-kind pieces within the nationally renowned Chrysler Museum of Art and the artists at work in the Chrysler Museum Glass Studio will leave you in awe. Musicians, dancers and actors are waiting to showcase their talents at the Virginia Opera, Wells Theatre and Chrysler Hall, to name a few. Other must-see attractions include the Norfolk Botanical Garden, Hampton Roads Naval Museum, MacArthur Memorial, the Virginia Zoo and, of course, Naval Station Norfolk, the world's largest naval base, which celebrates its 100th anniversary this year.

WELCOME TO THE CITY OF NORFOLK!

Whether you are a history buff, art connoisseur, love to stroll along the beach or sample the finest cuisine around, this dynamic and diverse, historic seaport city offers something for everyone.

I invite you to take advantage of the many opportunities our vibrant and authentic urban waterfront community has to offer. Our walkable downtown offers endless entertainment opportunities, such as shopping, dining, amusements or even exploring Norfolk's past at our newly renovated 138,000-square-foot, award-winning Slover Library.

Nordstrom and Dillard's department stores anchor the MacArthur Center shopping mall – a 140-store indoor shopping experience just a walk away from downtown hotels.

Just across from the mall is the MacArthur Memorial and newly constructed Visitor Center. The Memorial is home to more than 15,000 artifacts depicting the life and times of the famous General Douglas MacArthur. I also encourage you to take a cruise along the Elizabeth River and dance the night away on the Spirit of Norfolk. Enjoy great dining, dancing, and breathtaking Hampton Roads views.

Take a walk along the Elizabeth River and discover Nauticus and the Battleship Wisconsin. Don't miss an opportunity to explore the interior decks recently opened to the public. Take a moment to reflect at the Armed Forces Memorial. History unfolds along the Cannonball Trail where this self-guided walking tour takes you past historic homes and down the city's oldest surviving cobblestone streets.

Norfolk is the arts and cultural hub of the region. You'll find more than 100 pieces of public art throughout the city. Enjoy Norfolk's first official arts district, the NEON District, located downtown where vibrant murals await. We are home to the Chrysler Museum of Art – one of the top twenty museums in the country – and the Chrysler Museum Glass Studio, where artists offer free demonstrations of the ancient art of glassblowing. Dance, music and theater take the stage at our many venues. Norfolk is home to the Virginia Stage Company, Virginia Ballet and the Virginia Opera. Sports enthusiasts can cheer on ECHL Admirals Hockey team or the Triple-A Tides baseball team.

The Chesapeake Bay calmly laps more than 7.5 miles of Norfolk's Ocean View beaches – a great place to sun, swim and build a sand castle! Visit the Virginia Zoo – home to more than 500 animals. Hop onboard the Zoo Train for a narrated ride throughout the spacious grounds. Take in the beauty of nature at the 175-acre Norfolk Botanical Garden. With its more than 40 themed gardens, this oasis in the middle of the city is a national treasure.

So, what are you waiting for? Enjoy our distinctive city. I guarantee Norfolk will surprise, delight and enlighten. We're ready to welcome you.

Sincerely,

Kenny Alexander, Mayor

THE CHRYSLER MUSEUM OF ART & GLASS STUDIO

The Chrysler Museum of Art is a jewel in the city of Norfolk and Coastal Virginia, combining a nationally renowned art museum, a state-of-the-art Glass Studio, and two significant historic houses, the Moses Myers House and the Willoughby-Baylor House. This cultural enclave includes more than 30,000 original works of art that span more than 5,000 years in its newly expanded and transformed galleries.

Named for automobile heir and art collector Walter P. Chrysler, Jr., the Chrysler Museum was originally founded in 1933 as the Norfolk Museum of Arts and Sciences. Chrysler presented the City of Norfolk with his collection in 1971, and the Museum continues to grow and expand. Today the extensive art collection includes American and European paintings and sculpture, contemporary art, decorative arts, photography, and glass.

Particularly, the Chrysler's glass collection is one of the best in America. Especially notable is the acclaimed Tiffany collection, and the Museum's expanded glass galleries also include fine examples of historical glass, a significant selection of English cameo and French art glass, and contemporary masterworks by Studio Glass movement standouts.

In 2014, the Museum completed a significant expansion, reopening with more than 10,000-square-feet of new gallery space, a new café with al fresco dining, an eclectic gift shop, and amenities galore. The Chrysler also features a monthly Third Thursday evening of fun events for members and friends at both the Museum and its adjacent Perry Glass Studio. As one of America's only two comprehensive art museums with a glass studio, the Chrysler spotlights its reputation as a top-tier glass collection in the United States. The Glass Studio provides free public demonstrations at noon every Tuesday through Sunday. The Visiting Artist Series and monthly Third Thursday performance evenings bring some of the best and most innovative contemporary glass artists to work and experiment in the Glass Studio.

General admission to the Chrysler Museum, the Glass Studio, and the Historic Houses is FREE. Special exhibitions may have entry fees, though Museum members and children 5 and younger are always admitted free. The Chrysler Museum of Art is located at One Memorial Place in Norfolk. The Museum and the Glass Studio, at 745 Duke Street, are open Tuesday–Saturday from 10 a.m.–5 p.m., and Sunday from noon–5 p.m. On the Third Thursday of each month, both locations remain open until 10 p.m. with special programs and fun events for the public (Free for Museum members, $5 for others).

OCEAN VIEW & EAST BEACH

Norfolk's relaxing beach communities of Ocean View and East Beach will leave you feeling as though you're in a whole other world—one filled with fresh seafood, sand and seaside fun.

HISTORY

The area's unique history dates back hundreds of years and is full of interesting discoveries. Ocean View's Willoughby Spit, an independent peninsula originally inhabited by The Willoughby Family, has been a favorite Norfolk marvel since it first appeared as a result of a mid-1600's hurricane. Where there once had been only water now lies a serene strip of land created by Mother Nature. Past times at the beaches, neighborhoods and commercial districts of Ocean View are lovingly preserved and shared in collections of memorabilia, images and oral histories at the Ocean View Station Museum.

DINING

After a day at the beach, take advantage of Ocean View's dining hot spots. Stop in to Jessy's Taqueria for some fresh, homemade and authentic Mexican food. If you're craving something from the sea, Shipwreck Sally's offers delectable seafood dishes for breakfast or lunch. Dine at Razzo, a simple, warm locale that offers Italian dishes such as rigatoni bolognese and veal marsala.

ENTERTAINMENT

There's no better way to enjoy the neighborhood than a day at the beach! This area is home to several city beaches on the Chesapeake Bay. The City of Norfolk maintains three beach parks including the Community Beach Park, Sarah Constant Beach Park and Ocean View Beach Park. Grab the family or your friends and head out for a relaxing afternoon of sunbathing and swimming! Enjoy fishing on the Ocean View Fishing Pier and if you're hungry, grab a bite to eat at the pier's on-site restaurant, known for its super fresh seafood. Or if you'd prefer to stay on land, schedule a round of golf at the Ocean View Golf Course located one block from the Chesapeake Bay and marina.

NORFOLK PUBLIC ART

"ACROSS THE BAY" BY CECILIA LUZA AT OCEAN VIEW BEACH

Cross a street or turn a corner just about anywhere in Norfolk and you are likely to come across a stunning piece of public art. For more than 10 years, the Norfolk Public Art Program has strived to unite, energize and inspire the unique character of Norfolk.

Artists are actively working in studios open to the public. Galleries abound, showing everything from classic watercolors to the newest, cutting-edge techniques. And almost everywhere there is public art.

The beautifully traditional sculpture "The Homecoming" salutes Navy families. Nearby is the poignant "Armed Forces Memorial," bronze letters from service members to their families waiting for someone who would never return. Not too far from this touching art is the exuberant "MetalMatisse," a 30-foot-tall bouquet of stainless steel flowers that chimes and flashes color when it detects movement.

Those who venture to the Ocean View beaches will see the restroom buildings decked out with bold colors depicting some of the sights and activities loved by year-round residents. Other unexpected places where art abounds are the downtown parking garages. The Freemason garage is entirely done in a Chinese fortune cookie theme; instead of a cookie, your parking place has a fortune for you. Entering the Virginia Zoo, the first thing you see is a life-size aluminum African elephant made of butterflies, "All Things Within All Things." Pay close attention to the butterfly on the end of the elephant's trunk.

At the entrance to Norfolk Botanical Garden is a new sculpture, "Intertwine," a 20-foot sculpture of three common garden forms coming together to celebrate the hard work that created the beautiful gardens.

So wherever you find yourself in Norfolk, look for public art nearby. For maps, background information and additional resources, visit norfolkarts.net.

With gorgeous parks, abundant marinas and views of the Chesapeake Bay, Norfolk has become a hot spot for adventure travelers and outdoor enthusiasts. The city has become even more bike-friendly in recent years. New bike racks have popped up all over the city, and dedicated bike lanes have recently replaced vehicle lanes, including four miles of roads in historic Ghent. If you're looking to get out and enjoy the area's scenic beauty, don't miss the Elizabeth River Trail, a 10.5 mile long biking and pedestrian urban trail that runs through Norfolk. The trail occupies a railroad right-of-way, and incorporates a sea-faring history as it follows part of Norfolk's waterfront. On the trail you'll bike past the beautiful Elizabeth River, Town Point Park, Plum Point Park, Fort Norfolk, the Hague, Weynoke Bird Sanctuary, Hermitage Museum & Gardens and the Lafayette River, to name a few.

With the Elizabeth River and Chesapeake Bay running along its west and north borders, sailing, fishing and other waters sports are popular recreational activities. Multiple river cruises are easily accessible from downtown Norfolk's Town Point Park, conveniently located within walking distance of many area hotels. Excursions include the American Rover, a tall ship cruise where guests can lend a hand with the sails, explore the helms or relax on the deck; Victory Rover, which offers a behind-the-scenes look at Naval Station Norfolk, the world's largest naval base; and Spirit of Norfolk, a luxury cruise and entertainment vessel offering gorgeous views of the downtown skyline.

Book the ultimate fishing trip in Norfolk! Whatever your choice of catch may be, you're sure to find it in the nearby Chesapeake Bay, Atlantic Ocean or Elizabeth River. The Chesapeake Bay is home to a whole host of saltwater fish including trout, flounder, cobia, croaker, red drum and striped. Norfolk has two fishing piers – the Ocean View Fishing Pier and Willoughby Fishing Pier, both are open around the clock. There are also several chartered boat trips that can be reserved for a just few hours time or for a full day of fishing. Plan your fishing day now!

The story of the American Revolution, from the beginnings of colonial unrest to the formation of the new nation, unfolds at the American Revolution Museum at Yorktown through indoor exhibits and outdoor re-creations of a Continental Army encampment and Revolution-period farm. The museums are open 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily except Christmas and New Year's days. For more information call (888) 593-4682 or visit www.historyisfun.org.

THINGS TO DO

Some Come For The History. Others Come Just For The Fun Of It.

Come stroll the walkway along our waterfront. Wend your way to our lightship and naval shipyard museums. Continue wandering and you'll discover our huge Children's Museum and our famous tree-lined streets shading homes more than 250 years old. Close by, too, are the most intriguing of shops and a truly sumptuous selection of chef-owned restaurants. And what a delight it is to discover so many of the charms of this historic seaport are all within one very walkable square mile.

Virginia Arts Festival 2017

With dozens of performances including two world premieres, the 2017 Virginia Arts Festival is your spring destination for the arts!

The Virginia Arts Festival enters its third decade with a star-studded spring! The Festival will welcome the incomparable violinist Itzhak Perlman and the ravishing pianist Olga Kern; and making the roster of classical music performances even more irresistible, they will present the spectacular Berlioz Requiem with the Virginia Symphony Orchestra and Chorus, and an Easter weekend performance of Bach's St. John Passion with the Internationale Bach Academie of Stuttgart.

The 2017 dance season leaps to new heights with the Festival debut of the Canada's Royal Winnipeg Ballet, in their stunningly beautiful staging of Swan Lake; and visits by visionary contemporary choreographers and their companies, including Britain's Richard Alston Dance Company, Los Angeles' vivid Lula Washington Dance Theatre, and a world premiere from New York's groundbreaking Urban Bush Women. Highlighting the dance season will be Mark Morris Dance Group's performance of Dido and Aeneas, with opera star Stephanie Blythe singing the roles of Dido and the Sorceress.

There are great voices to be heard, as soprano Kathleen Battle brings her wonderfully moving Underground Railroad concert, backed by the Norfolk State University Choir; and there will be a Festival debut of the female R&B trio KING, protégés of the late genius of innovation, Prince.

The 21st Virginia International Tattoo promises to be awe-inspiring, with more than 1,000 performers. The Virginia Arts Festival will once again present the June Funhouse Festival in Williamsburg, featuring some of the most influential artists in pop, folk, jazz, blues and more.

Fun-seeking travelers on Memorial Day Weekend will find lots to enjoy at the Festival including the phenomenal 13-year-old jazz prodigy pianist Joey Alexander, and the hilarious Reduced Shakespeare Company.

And in case all that great entertainment, inspiring performances, and sheer beauty makes you thirsty, the Virginia Arts Festival is proud to co-present (with Festevents) the Virginia Beer Festival, May 19-20. Top off your Festival fun with a frosty mug and foaming stein of brews from around the world!

For more information and tickets to Virginia Arts Festival performances, visit vafest.org or call 757-282-2822.
